RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN,
Rally At Loveland Park,
Loveland, Ohio,
August 12-13, 1972

A source familiar with white extremist activities in the Cincinnati, Ohio, area, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 14, 1972, that over the weekend of Saturday and Sunday, August 12 to August 13, 1972, a rally was held in Loveland, Ohio, by persons claiming to be members of the Ohio Ku Klux Klan. The principal organizer of this rally was [redacted]

[redacted] of Warren County Klavern Number 5, National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, [redacted] at the site of the rally, which was a former resort. The source characterized [redacted] as a "confidence man" and "outcast" from the now defunct national organization, who has periodically generated interest in the Klan in order to raise money and dues which he then pockets and spends for himself. Source advised that [redacted] has formed a front organization known as the Loveland Park Association (LPA). Through this front organization, potential members buy "stock" in the association, which ostensibly is targeted to rebuild the Quebec Inn, an old "restaurant" and club house on the resort site which burned down during June, 1972. The purpose of this rally was to recruit members for the Loveland Park Association. U

There were four speakers at the rally, and all made rather low key presentations denouncing Democratic Presidential Candidate George McGovern and the administration of President Nixon. Each speaker announced his support for Alabama Governor George Wallace. Source clarified his use of the term low key by citing the fact that the term "Black" was used exclusively to refer to members of the Negro race rather than the vile and hate filled characterizations of the past. The speakers were as follows: U

[redacted] Lodi, Ohio, who claimed to be the [redacted] of the Ohio Klan;

[redacted] South Carolina;

[redacted] New Jersey, who claimed to be the [redacted] of their respective states;

[redacted] Akron, Ohio, who claimed to be the head of the [redacted] of the Ohio Klan.

Source advised that two "Crosses" were burned during the Saturday night rally. The first was a device made of pipe constructed on the principal of a gas fire-place, which is fueled by bottled propane gas. The second was a small cross constructed of two by four lumber, wrapped with burlap soaked in a mixture of kerosene and motor oil. This cross was constructed on the rally site [redacted] Middletown, Ohio; [redacted] South Lebanon, Ohio; [redacted] Norwood, Ohio; and two other unidentified men and a young boy. U

The speeches were made from the flag and banner, decorated flat-bed of an older model Chevrolet truck. In addition to the previously cited topics, each speaker urged those in attendance to obtain membership forms and literature made available at a folding table beneath the speakers platform. The membership applications were pre-printed and contained the following heading: U

"APPLICATION FOR CITIZENSHIP IN THE INVISIBLE EMPIRE - KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS, TUCKER GA. - P. O. BOX 107 - AREA CODE 404 - PH: 938-5921."

Speakers [redacted] were clothed in green, stain like hoodless robes, while [redacted] wore a white robe and white cone hat. U

Source advised there were approximately 150 persons in attendance and broke their composition down as such: U

Known Extremists;

Ku Klux Klan (KKK);

National Socialist White Peoples Party (NSWPP);

American White Nationalist Party (AWNPP);

National States Rights Party (NSRP) - 23;

News media personnel such as television, newspaper, and radio reporters and cameramen - 25;

The rest was comprised of curious onlookers, family groups, including wives and children, and "hippie types" who seemed content with questioning [redacted] about Ku Klux Klan beliefs. U

James Venable, a National Klan figure, had been reputed to attend, but did not show up, and no explanation was made as to his failure to appear. U

The Sunday meeting was not a rally, but was simply an informal gathering with only local persons in attendance. Approximately twenty persons dropped in to talk with [redacted] throughout the day. U

Source advised that the following persons known to him to be associated with white extremist activities participated in this rally: U

EXTREMIST MATTERS - NKKKK

[redacted] source of the Atlanta Division advised as follows on September 3, 1972: U

The annual rally and cross burning sponsored by the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) took place on Saturday evening, September 2, 1972. The rally began promptly at 7:30 p.m. with NKKKK Imperial Wizard James R.
Venable acting as master of ceremonies. U

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan,
Inc., (NKKKK) was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern States, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born. U

Approximately 300 people attended the rally with approximately 100 wearing their Klan robes (men and women).
There were young people in the crowd who seemed to have come out of curiosity rather than a sincere interest in the Klan. U

Venable gave the principal speech in which he called for separation of the races. He also warned those assembled of what he called "a world court", that if not stopped would one day control everyone's life. Venable also stated that the Klan is continuing to grow in membership and that now it is seeking to enroll young people. U

The following people also gave speeches: U

[redacted] of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (UKA), of Alabama;

[redacted] of the UKA, South Carolina;

[redacted] of the UKA of Indiana; and

[redacted]
of the NKKKK. / G.

All extolled the merits of the Klan and being a Klan member, and also called for the separation of the races.

The United Klans of America, Inc., was chartered in 1961 in Georgia. Its aims and purposes are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races. It is the dominant Klan group in the South with headquarters at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and is currently active in several states. ✓

A 25 foot cross was burned while 100 robed Klansmen circled it. The rally ended at 11:00 a.m. and there were no instances of violence. ✓

The September 3, 1972, issue of the Atlanta Journal Constitution, a Sunday issue newspaper published in Atlanta, Georgia, carried a story on page 6-B of the rally. It said that the rally was attended by approximately 200 people, many of them young people. The story quoted Imperial Wizard Venable as saying the Klan was "Making a drive to get lots of teenagers." Venable at the rally claimed the group had 81,000 members nationally. U //

On Sunday evening, September 3, 1972, WSB Television Station, Atlanta, Georgia, carried a pictorial story of the rally. The story concluded by stating that the Klan was slowly dying as membership fell off. U

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN,
REALM OF OHIO RALLY AT LOVELAND, OHIO,
SEPTEMBER 23-24, 1972

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKK) was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order." The NKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern states, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

A source familiar with White extremist activities in the Cincinnati, Ohio, area, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on the afternoon of September 23, 1972, a rally was held in Loveland, Ohio, by persons claiming to be members of the Ohio Ku Klux Klan. The early part of the rally from approximately 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM was involved with the setting up of speaking platforms and the erection of a cross to be burned later that evening. Approximately 10 persons were present. Those involved in the pre-rally activities were [REDACTED] sons, several youngsters, and four other unidentified adult males.

At approximately 6:00 PM, [REDACTED] ejected from the rally grounds by [REDACTED]. The basis for this was that he was initially scheduled as a speaker but had begun drinking and "shooting off his mouth" in an inflammatory way which was felt by the leadership to be antagonistic and would perhaps cause trouble later on, therefore, his ouster.

By 8:00 PM, the rally was under way and some 53 persons were present, including men, women and children. The crowd remained at about that level during the remainder of the rally and at no time exceeded more than 75 persons which would include some teenagers who showed up for the cross-burning.

purpose of the rally was to initiate new members into the Klan, no such initiation took place.

"KKKK needs [redacted] for Sheriff." The driver of the second car, a 1965 Ford, was [redacted] Loveland Park, Ohio. Affixed to the roof of [redacted] car was a sign reading, "Ku Klux Klan wants [redacted] for Sheriff."

Sheriff Wallace explained that he told both [redacted] to immediately leave the area, take down the signs, and to cease any activity supposedly linking him with the Klan. Sheriff Wallace stated that [redacted] said they would comply with the Sheriff's wishes since they were parading only because they were being paid to do so by [redacted] National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK), Realm of Ohio.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN, INC. (NKKKK)

A source advised that on May 22, 1960, the National Grand Council of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan met at Atlanta, Georgia, to discuss consolidation of the Klan's unity of effort and activities to establish a National Fund and a National Secretary and to design a new flag. The meeting was attended by representatives of the Federation of Ku Klux Klan, Alabama; Association of Arkansas Klans, Arkansas; Florida Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Southern Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Florida; Association of Georgia Klans, Georgia; Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, North Carolina; Association of South Carolina Klans, South Carolina; Dixie Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Tennessee; and Kyksos Klan, Texas.

[redacted] source advised that at a consolidation meeting at Atlanta, Georgia, September 2-5, 1960, at which the North Carolina and Texas Klans were not represented, it was resolved and passed that their name be changed to National Ku Klux Klan.

[redacted] source advised in March, 1964, that several meetings of Klan groups were held during the period 1960 to 1963 in an effort to unite the Klan groups under a single leadership.

RE: NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (NKKKK)

The organization was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, November 1, 1963, under the name National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., as a "patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order."

[redacted] source advised in December, 1963, that the organization had issued a statement of its program which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

[redacted] source advised in July, 1968, that the organization has its headquarters in Tucker, Georgia, and the day-to-day operations are under the direction of James R. Venable, Imperial Wizard.

Sheriff Wallace also provided a copy of a leaflet which has been widely circulated throughout Warren County, Ohio. The leaflet, a copy of which is attached to this memorandum, is titled, "Warning ? Warning Know Your Candidates Warren County Citizens and Voters" and is authored by "Voters of Warren County, Post Office Box 37, Springboro, Ohio." Sheriff Wallace advised that [redacted] mentioned in item 2 in the leaflet, is currently running for election for Common Pleas Judge, Warren County, Ohio, and that [redacted] mentioned in item 3 in the leaflet, is currently running for election for Warren County Prosecutor. Sheriff Wallace stated he has learned that Post Office Box 37, Springboro, Ohio, was rented by [redacted] Franklin, Ohio. [redacted] identified [redacted] for the NKKKK.

Sheriff Wallace concluded by stating he was of the opinion that both the automobile incident and the distribution of the above mentioned leaflet was a political gimmick to help the election of his opponent, [redacted] in an attempt by Klan activist to discredit his own [redacted] of Warren County.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

Moderator:

Okay. And, we have a high school senior here, Dave Watson, uh how long have you been a member?

Watson:

I've been a member for a year and a half.

Moderator:

How did you first become a member?

Watson:

Uh, it was my own doing, uh I was involved in conservative politics and found out that the conservative politics aren't going to get you anywhere, because they don't the issues. They coward from the main issues which are of great importance to this country. And I found that the KKK is going to represent the Christian White People.

Moderator:

Okay. We think of the Klan as the robed individuals with hoods and (inaudible) organization. Is that still true?

Reusch:

No it is not, you see today, I'm trying to bring a new image to the Klan, where the public (inaudible) and fully understands its background, its history, its motive, its program and its objectives. In the United States, most American people do not realize what's involved the political and also religious groups. The Klan is trying to program an educational field, also a political field and a field for the youth of this Nation. Now, we are driving coming up to this I think it's January 1st, when you're eligible to file for office, public office, we'll have candidates in the States of Ohio, running for public office. We want a full understanding the Klan beliefs are in its destinations. We're going to bring this out more openly to the public. The public today has an idea that we're murderers and we ride by night and etc...This is not true. I'm a young man, myself, and I want to bring a new image, a new life to the Klan. But, we are segregationists.

Moderator:

Now how long have you been a member of the KKK?

Reusch:

Been a member? Approximately 8 years.

Moderator:

You made the statement in the newspaper, talking to one of the reporters, that it's probably a good potential for Dayton to have a large membership of the Klan, it is, and do we have members now in Dayton?

Reusch:

Yes, yes do, I established a chapter in Dayton, two weeks ago. I issued them a National Charter and this chapter in the near future will be in full operation in the Dayton area.

Moderator:

Now, again (inaudible), a secret organization, (inaudible). If we had them come on this program, they would come on and say I am a member of this Klan in Dayton?

Reusch:

Yes, they would, (inaudible) officers, usually the members stay secret if they prevail to state in that order. Now it's up to once Klansman or Klanswoman if he wants his identity known as a Klansman or Klanswoman. I do not enforce them to disclose their membership.

Moderator:

Why would they want to keep it a secret?

Reusch:

Some people feel that they would have maybe be persecuted and harassed.

Moderator:

Have you ever been since you've been a member of the Klan?

Reusch:

Not directly, I have maybe felt that there was a little confrontation, but not directly, as a matter of fact, I needed a lot of friends because of my philosophy and my ideas.

Moderator:

Dave, what about yourself? Have you been intimidated because you're a member of the KKK?

Watson:

Well you have to understand that the people that I go to school with, the people that I associate with, they uh because of their education, because of the communist infiltration of our American education institutions, most teenagers my age are liberals, I do suffer a little bit because I am against liberalists and for Christianity, not Atheists.

Moderator:

But you do say that you are a member of the Klan at your school.

Watson:

No, I do not.

Moderator:

You don't. What about you Tina?

West:

I have some problems.

Moderator:

Tell us about some of them.

West:

Well, one of them, I was at an American Party group and people say that there is no Communism in the country (inaudible) in the American Party group and see all the people that would come up to me and tell you your Government stinks and they have nothing going for them.

Well, it's true, there is a lot of corrupted people, but I still think there is a lot that can be done to bring it back to where it should be, but there are a lot of kids that (inaudible) you know (inaudible) they'll find out that people are trying to tell you (inaudible). Well, I've always been told that they'll slash your throat and hang you up on a tree and everything and I never really felt that way (inaudible) and they never said anything that wasn't true.

Moderator:

That's Klan that you're talking about?

West:

Yeah.

Moderator:

And how long have you been a member?

West:

About a year.

Moderator:

Is your husband a member?

West:

Yes, he is.

Moderator:

And that's probably how you got your interest in it huh?

West:

I told him about it. He didn't go to the meetings, I told him about it and he was talking about it too, and he found out by reading books (inaudible) and books that were printed two years ago (inaudible) I read them and I see how it's happened. Not too many people tell me (inaudible), but they tell me that I'm crazy, and I tell them to read the book and they'll see. They don't like me to say this (inaudible).

Moderator:

Okay, Mr. Reusch, if you were a member of the Klan in let's say, and you started a chapter, well you have a chapter in Dayton, don't you?

Reusch:

Yes, I do.

Moderator:

If you were a member of the KKK, you must be a what?

Reusch:

White Caucasian, must believe in Americanism and you must believe in the Christian Faith, this is the three standards that we ask for the candidates that are coming into this work. And these are the only qualifications that really we ask. Now the characteristics of the member: He must have the good character, sound mind and this is the qualifications that we look for in a candidate in the National election of the KKK.

Moderator:

How many members do you have?

Reusch:

This I cannot reveal because it is an oath and in our bylaws that this may not be released to any alien (inaudible). I will say this much I'm growing at the rapid pace, getting close to the mark of 2,000 and I hope to reach by mid summer 50,000 members in the State of Ohio.

Moderator:

In the State of Ohio?

Reusch:

In the State of Ohio.

Moderator:

50,000 is your expectation?

Reusch:

It'll be in that area, I'd say, it's hard to tell at the present time.

Moderator:

If I were Jewish, I couldn't get in?

Reusch:

No, because the Jewish people are not Christians and their religion is Judaism and Christianity is Christianity and they're both completely separate.

Moderator:

Why do you think that Dayton has good potential?

Reusch:

I think that Dayton, itself, there is a lot of misrepresentation in the governmental part. I notice that now your mayor in this city, if I'm correct, is not elected, you have a (inaudible) village. He is appointed by a commission of people that are on a board and (inaudible) it has been proved by the Federal Government. We have in the United States today, it's a good thing you brought that up John, a different state legislatures with the State of Minnesota, on March 26, 1971, the State Legislature of the State of Minnesota voted in World Government in the State of Minnesota, itself, (inaudible) you have a declaration of world citizenship. For those people that reside in Minnesota. On this one, this is close to my town, Richfield, Ohio, this is another one it's declaration of world citizenship. It holds world citizenship out of (inaudible) and other countries and in this charter and every charter that you will read on this, and if anybody wants to have a copy of this you may write to them, this says in here world law and under world law, you must have a world court, a world army, a world police force, a world government and perhaps a world church. This is all specified.

In the "New York Times" Magazine of 1972, July 4, they printed the World Constitution in that "New York Times". If anybody cares to have a copy of this paper, they may write to "New York Times", that's July 4, 1972. And there's a lot of other things that we're active in right today. They have what they call a tax strike in this country. This paper put out in California uh to re-appeal, (inaudible) and (inaudible) the 16th Amendment of the Constitution. This was illegally ratified, actually it was never ratified by Congress and December 23, 1913. Uh, this is taxation without representation and there is a movement by a chain of lawyers in this country to get this tax strike under-way that people have better representation for their money that they are earning.

Moderator:

So you're dealing with issues today, a lot more than the Klan has been known for in the past? (Inaudible) and injuring black people and that sort of thing so that's the type of thing the Klan has been known for.

Reusch:

Well, it had that image, they seem to strike that image, uh you must realize that the South, uh, why the Klan was formed in the South in the reconstruction days after the Civil War, because Robert E. Lee, himself, and Nathan Bedford Forrest, who was a General and a top Clergyman in the South met in Tennessee and through this reconstruction the United States Government failed to re-sovereignize those 13 States under that surrender, Lee agreed that if I surrender will these States regain sovereign, Nathan says he agreed to that. After it was said to Washington, Nathan was assassinated and then the United States Government sent in blacks into the South and blacks were the only ones allowed to vote at that present time. So you have all of the disorder, rioting, put the South under marshal law, killing, murdering, rap ing, and they see they need for some type of organization. So they went out to Tennessee where these three men met in a tavern, in a basement of a tavern, that's why they call the meeting spot of the Klan a (inaudible) and that's their secrecy to come up with an idea to form an organization to represent these people, these white Christian people that were being massacred in the South. So they went to the Scottish Ritual of Scotland where they used to have a Klan and I think it still exists today, where the Klan, itself, will carry a cross in the battle, this is where the cross came from. This knight would ride into the battle and if he was injured or killed, another knight would come by and pick this cross up and hold it out front as he engaged in the battle. So it took a lot of writings from Scotland and a lot of Greek words from Greece. Two Klux (inaudible) in a circle, Klan means a body of people. So this is what you have, there is a lot of ritual and a lot of things that the Klan did in the past has done for this country. They have contributed a lot of money to the colleges in this country to help contribute...I know, myself, in Atlanta, Georgia, I've seen Colonel Simmons' books in the University of Texas, different colleges and schools that they have donated this money that when the dues money came in all over the United States, this was distributed among different cities in the United States.

Moderator:

Thank you. Let me get to our telephone now. The number to call is 263-2662, we'll put you in contact with the KKK.

You are on the air, go ahead.

Caller:

Hello?

Moderator:

Yes, go ahead you're on the air.

Caller:

I'd like to ask one question quickly to the young lady. She spoke about the American Party group and, if I'm not mistaken, I think that's connected with the Wallace campaign or he was active in (inaudible)?

West:

No, we just endorse them because we feel that these candidates are the only candidates...

Caller:

I can't hear you.

Moderator:

She endorses them, the KKK, in this particular case, endorses the American Party. Right.

West:

Yes, we just endorse them.

Moderator:

Okay?

Caller:

Hello?

Moderator:

Yes.

Caller:

I couldn't hear her but I'll continue if you don't mind.

Moderator:

Okay.

Caller:

I'm wondering now do you now accept Catholics.

West:

I'm a Catholic.

Moderator:

She is a Catholic.

Caller:

Okay. And if you become a powerful organization, then obviously you would like to become, even to the point of becoming a majority to the country what would you do with all the Negroes and Jews that you feel are not acceptable?

West:

I think that the best way to put it is that we would go back to the old form of Republic Government.

Caller:

I just ask this final question please?

Moderator:

Alright.

Caller:

Who judges the sound mind of you membership?
What are the qualifications if you got sound mind?

Reusch:

The qualifications of a sound mind you must check, we have a screening committee, this committee goes out into the public, the neighbors surrounding and surrounding areas, perhaps maybe we could, the man resides on the job and we check the characteristics of this man and if we feel that the neighborhood, the people involved themselves, ~~say~~ this man is completely hot headed or he acts on impulse alone, maybe he abuses his family then after we collect this information, then we go to the house ~~where~~^{where} the candidate lives, then we obtain his viewpoints on why he wants to join this order. Now, if this man is too far extreme and has his own personal reasons why joining this order, he is rejected. Now there is a lot of other characteristics (inaudible). There is perhaps all kinds of walks of life of different individuals that are seeking for their own goals to join an order and to use this order for their benefit. So this is what we have, we have to keep in mind that what the goal of the individual is, why he is joining this order and what he feels he's going to get out of this order.

Moderator:

You're in contact with the KKK, go ahead please.

Caller:

Uh, the young^g man who is there, how old is he?

Matson:

I'm 17.

Moderator:

He's 17.

Caller:

17?

Matson:

Yes.

Caller:

How young can you be to be a member of the KKK?

Matson:

Uh qualifications to become a Junior Klansman is uh that you be 15 years old to...

Caller:

15 is the youngest you can be?

Matson:

Yes.

Caller:

And if you are (inaudible)?

Matson:

Well I've never dealt with that problem, but if I did have a youngster under 15 years of age who would want to become active with this organization, I would do the best on my part so that he would become active.

Caller:

If you go from one city to another, how do you transfer your membership?

Reusch:

Process through the State Headquarters, Post Office Box, Lodi. Everything is processed in that and I in turn distribute the applicant's in the areas that the applicant has filed. Now we have representatives in those areas and I filter that these applicants back into the hands of the representative of this order.

Caller:

(Inaudible?)

Reusch:

A lot of times, people communicate to me and uh maybe on fliers or pamphlets that I hand out and in turn they have name and address so I may send them an application. Usually I do not send an application, we personally contact the candidates ourselves so that we are sure of the individual receiving the application.

Caller:

How many (inaudible) do you have applicants?

Reusch:

In the State of Ohio, we got, at the present time, 87 chapters. Some counties carry as high as 45 chapters. In the southern section with which we're building up right today, uh on rough estimate we have about 14 chapters.

Moderator:

You have chapters all over the United States (inaudible).

Reusch:

Yes, the Nationals have chapters in about 41 or 42 different states.

Moderator:

What's Shelton's group again?

Reusch:

(Inaudible).

Moderator:

Is your group bigger than this?

Reusch:

It's hard to determine who's bigger and who's not, because the membership is never revealed.

Moderator:

Do you agree with Shelton?

Reusch:

Well I will say this much, there's principles and beliefs that he is fighting for just like I am. I can't disagree, maybe on personal reasons, this to me, it is in my oath no animosity whatsoever (inaudible). So if he is wrong in some of his ideas, that's not for me to say, it's up to me to correct it.

Moderator:

Because of times, I know that one time, I remember an interview that Shelton had, he and (inaudible) were at one time they were incorporated. Then they split, because (inaudible) made a comment uh, he agreed with the Muslim is that right?

Reusch:

I think this is how (inaudible).

Moderator:

You're on the air go ahead?

Caller:

Yes. I would like to ask...?

Moderator:

To Dave?

Caller:

Yes.

Moderator:

Okay, go ahead.

Caller:

(Inaudible?)

Reusch:

Uh, no, in fact I got along with Negro people quit well. I did not join this organization on any animosity for any people or for any religion, I just felt that the white Christians should be able to determine their own destiny. The Knights of the KKK does not believe in opposing white Christianity or any other people, we don't believe in imposing our white culture on black people, we don't believe in imposing our Christian culture on Jewish people, but we do believe this, that white Christians should have the right to determine their own destiny and this is what we're after. We just feel that the American Christians should have the right to determine their own destiny.

Moderator:

Okay, does that answer your question?

Caller:

Okay, thank you.

Moderator:

The number to call is 263-2662 we'll put you in contact with any member we have here from the nights of the National Rights from Ohio. You're on the air, go ahead.

Caller:

(Inaudible).

Reusch:

There's only two functions that tie what we rebel against and basically its malicious murder and rape. Now the only times that the Klan (inaudible) or has known to act upon violence was when the courts, the judiciary system of the country failed to testify the crime involved. I'm not saying that they weren't public crimes committed back in the 30's or 40's or 20's, and probably were crimes committed that were unjustified by the Klan, but I can't account or you can't account or my members cannot account today for one man or two men's actions that happened maybe 30 years ago. All that we can account for is our actions today. This is what I'm trying to bring forth, a new everything. Now, if somebody attacks me, I'm not going to lay down my hand, I'll attack them to defend myself, but this is what you must realize. But the Klan itself did a lot of good in the past and was its people that use the Klan for its own achievements. We had four Presidents in the United States who were Klansmen. We had Calvin Coolidge, Harding, Mc Kinley, and Truman, also the Judge of the Federal Supreme Court Black which was a Klansman. He was initiated in Birmingham, Alabama, in 1920, because I knew the man himself personally that initiated Black and at that time. So there was a lot of prominent people that were Klanspeople in this country. Practically each official in the United States was maybe connected with or members of the Klan back in the 20's and 30's. Now I don't say that overall maybe the Klan itself had maybe 10 to 12 million members (inaudible). You can't condemn the whole organization for one individual act.

Moderator:

Do you have any prominent members today?

Reusch:

Yes, I have prominent members.

Moderator:

Like who?

Reusch:

I have some doctors in the Cleveland and Akron areas, I have a few lawyers. That's where I get all my legal advice when I need legal advice that's free of charge to me. There's different men in different professional fields that help ease the burden on me to run an organization.

Moderator:

Anybody that we all know nationally prominent?

Reusch:

No, there's none prominent nationally that I know of personally myself.

Moderator:

Okay, you're in contact go ahead please.

Caller:

Yes, I have a question for all three of the members. They claim that they are Christians and I would like to know do they believe in God?

Reusch:

I believe in Jesus Christ, if this is what you're asking me. Uh, Christ said himself, "On this rock I stand and I build my church". He talked about the Christian belief and the faith. Now we have different denominations throughout this country probably a 1000 different so called Christian denominations, but Christ only made one faith and that was Christian alone and I think the Christian Church is completely off course, it's losing its true teachings of Jesus Christ. And if you want to know the definition of Christian it's being "Christ-like".

Caller:

Well God did not preach hate among the realms, he did not preach hate among the men and basically, this (inaudible) of the way you should run a country is totally wrong. I don't see how you people can actually say that you are Christians when you advocate the separation of races when God did not believe in this himself. He came here to unite the world, not to separate men for what they were. And you say (inaudible). Well how can you claim this when you're nothing but a bunch of hippies running around in white robes and sheets. Don't sit there and laugh, I can see you on my TV screen.

Reusch:

I can see you too.

Caller:

I know exactly what kind of people you are. There's no place in this country for people like you.

Reusch:

Well first of all, your attitude, but now let me explain it...

Moderator:

The number is 263-2862, you'll be in contact with the Grand Dragon of Ohio, Mr. Reusch or Dave Watson or Tina West, any questions you may have concerning the KKK.

Do you still burn crosses at your rallies?

Reusch:

We light the cross, but we do not burn it. The cross, itself, stands after the material of the outside of the cross is eliminated. Now down through the period of years, people say we're burning the cross because they see the cross in flames. The only thing that burns on the cross is the outer material that is applied to the wood. After this is completely dissolved then the cross, itself, still stands. You got to know the ritual in back of this. The (inaudible) belief taking the cross out of the darkness and bringing it into the light where everybody can see it, it's luminizes the whole world.

This is what Jesus Christ stands for and also it purifies this is why we believe in white womanhood, keep white white and black black, yellow yellow. This man's question who just called me just before, this he said God says he does not hate, and there is a verse in there where he says he does hate. Right at the present time, I do not have the scripture, but it is in there and if he reads Genesis, the first Chapter, of the Old Testament, it's all about separation of races. Genesis has a lot involved in other chapters, and one special verse is, "Replenish the earth of your own kind, and do not seek strange flesh". So we were created separately. If God wanted us to be created all the same he would have made us all the same in his likeness. We were created individually and there is no such thing as equality either on earth because, if you form equality you're depriving other people of their rights. Free men are not equal and equal men are not free.

Moderator:

You're in contact with KKK, go ahead please.

Caller:

Okay, there's something I would like to ask the young lady that says she's a Catholic?

Moderator:

Uh huh.

Caller:

(Inaudible.) Uh Jesus Christ died on the cross to save, you know, people and I would like to know if (inaudible).

West:

No, he did die to save all men and also said to baptize all nations, and he also said, "Replenish after your own kind". And I feel that we should not force segregation, mixing of the races, because if you do this it causes problems. Uh, I feel that Jesus Christ, I know, talks with everybody and I think everybody can obtain heaven, but I feel that they can only trace the white man down 5 or 6000 years before Christ and they have an evolution (inaudible). This is what I feel that he (inaudible) but he did not condemn the other people, you know. We're all races and we're all different colors. He didn't make the different (inaudible).

Moderator:

(Inaudible) members of Jesus Christ and you believe in Jesus Christ and you talk about what he says is right. You said you believe in what he says. He's Jewish. How can you then be against a Jew?

Reusch:

First of all, they said that was his name — (inaudible) above Jesus Christ and was crucified. They said he was king of the Jews. He was king of all men — that followed Christianity. Judaism, as you're talking about religion. This is separate from Christianity. — But when he was up on the cross, and the Pharisees, — which he called the Jews today, as you look in Revelations the second chapter, the 9th and 10th verses for your audience, they called themselves Jews, but they are not, but of the Synagogue of Satan. Then you can go back into John 8:44, it explains that they are liars (inaudible), — but Christ said he says, "Father forgive them not for not what they know, what they do." He wasn't talking to the Roman Soldiers, which turned out of order like your son in Vietnam, (inaudible). He was talking to the individual that forced his persecution, this persecution in the cross. And he was talking to the Pharisees on the righthand side of him down at the base of the cross and "This I say", he says, "For where I go I'm from above and you're from beneath". So if you believe in Christianity you'll follow him above. The Jewish Religion is opposed to Christianity so they are from beneath. This is our philosophy about the Jewish Religion.

Moderator:

You're in contact with the KKK go ahead please.

Caller:

I'd like to know what they could do if one of their members is raped or murdered?

Reusch:

— If the law failed to provide the right punishment to bring this man to the prosecution of this conviction or is innocent until proven guilty, if the courts fail to provide this, our God-given race, this is what we do not tolerate. (Inaudible), upon our white Christian faith and this is why we do have the courts in this country to be the media. If they fail and they turn this man loose, and we have the evidence, then we will claim it for ourselves, because this is our God-given race. (inaudible) races inseparable, separate from one another. Now this is an act of sin against God's word. As we get back up to Genesis, take it right back up to the "Bible". It mentions 140 something times in the "Bible" of separation of races. In this, like I said before, the "Bible" also claims there's only two times in life that murder and malicious rape (inaudible). And if the courts fail to justify the crime then the Klan will become active into this (inaudible) as a court.

Moderator:

Okay.

Caller:

Well, when you spoke of Americanism (Inaudible)...

Reusch:

It's also unconstitutional for the judiciary system of this country to turn their back on what's right and what is wrong. They also have a book of ethics to follow and laws that are given to you to follow and the court must also prevail these laws. The courts ~~are~~ the institution of this, of any country, that this keep a government together. If we ~~lose~~ our courts, which are becoming liberalized in this country today, turning the criminals back loose on the streets then you're going to have more crime and more crime and people are going to be crying for law and order. They'll yell law and order for so long that they'll want a police state, and when you're under a police state, you've lost all your rights. This is what we're trying to prevent. (Inaudible), need different qualified people to hand down the proper decisions to these criminals.

Moderator:

Okay?

Caller:

Okay.

Moderator:

(Inaudible) the issues, when it comes to the "Bible", because I'm not that well versed in the "Bible", but isn't it true that uh how do we know that Jesus is not a black man?

Reusch:

Well, you go into part of Genesis, you take Adam. Now, Adam was premade in the likeness of God. Now, if we go in accordance with the "Bible", Adam means white. Look it up in accordance with the "Bible". Now, Christ was about 33 generations down from Adam, (inaudible). This is ~~what~~ I always was taught and I've always believed that Christ was white. He may have maybe been in a hot climate in which he may have created a tan, but he was not of a black generation, because you have ~~Eve~~ and Abel and there's a big history behind them, which is probably never taught in your churches today, a lot of Clergymen like to stay away from it. When you tell them to sin, ~~Cain~~ killed Abel. So you got to remember what Eve got in the garden, she was beguiled by Satan, himself. I believe that there were two conceptions between Adam and Satan, himself. She bore twins. So this is where sin began. And if you go back to Noah, when Noah preached 120 years approximately of the destruction of the generations of his people. He preached 120 years and it took him 120 years to build the Ark. And he quoted in the "Bible", he said, "For these people that come on into my land and look upon my daughters as being fair". And Noah is a descendent of Adam so this gives me the recognition that that generation was white and that (inaudible) off tribe or race of people, came into his people (inaudible) and sinned and this is why it was (inaudible). In the for the whole world to be (inaudible) I believe that in the "Bible" it's, in the world there's an area. (Inaudible) a lot today, a lot of people don't understand Noah's Ark is still under a glacier of ice and that this is a bit (inaudible). In that Turkish area, you've got to remember that this is a vast area and this is where his settlement was, just like if I would come to the State of Ohio.

CAIN

Moderator:

Alright. Go ahead, please, you're on the air.

Caller:

Uh, does he advocate separation of the races?

Moderator:

Yes.

Caller:

What?

Moderator:

Yes, he does.

Caller:

I want to know his proposal (inaudible)?

Moderator:

His plan? Okay, what's your plan?

Reusch:

First of all, God's law says that man will turn back to his own kind. Now, exactly how he interprets that I don't know. But, I'll say this much, we've had less violence and less crimes in the South than have happened all over, because of segregation. We have more crimes in the North and I'm a yankee, myself, and I'm really one of the oldest in my county's where I reside in from 1800. But we have more crimes on integration than we do on segregation. So this makes me realize that the races, themselves, cannot get along and they're not equality. To one another, not equal. You've got to remember this much that the black man was brought to this country and it wasn't by the Southern plantation owners they were sold by ships from British, Spanish, Portugal and I believe from Dutch ships. But their own chief in Africa sold them out for gold and whiskey and they sent them to this country for slavery. A lot of slave owners in the South freed the slaves before Lincoln gave the Proclamation of desovereignizing slavery in the South. So actually, it wasn't the point of slavery why the Civil War was started, it was planned in advance by different European bankers to split the United States. But also you got to remember that the black man came to this country, and the white man had given him a lot of culture, he has given him a lot of medicine which you never had in Africa, he also gave them education, he gave them a Christian faith to follow. He gave them a lot and I can't see how, myself, that the black man would want to become integrated into the white man in which the white man has given. You must realize another thing, that we have a lot of this going on today and why is it? Because our representative in Washington feels that we must have a (inaudible) race to all live in harmony, which is not true again because the more you force integration, the more rebellion you have and also perhaps maybe a Civil War with this (inaudible).

Moderator:

I think the black man (inaudible). But I do feel the reason a lot of times we think that we are white is because our history is given to us by white people. We are not told the full story of the black man, we don't know how many contributions the black man has made to our society. He has made a great number of contributions and the reason we don't get this is because our history books are written by white men and it's really too bad, because the black man's done as much as innovated as, if not more or equal than the white man. But we don't get to hear that because of the fact that our history books, our teachers, our background has all been from whites, and that's my theory too.

You're on the air, go ahead please.

Caller:

(Inaudible).

West:

Well just when Abraham Lincoln decided to send all the black people back to Africa, he was assassinated. This was a plot by the Jews. The Jews, wherever they had gone, they had gotten into the economy, and they have destroyed the country, they have made peasants of every one. They intended on mixing all the races, this is the reason we have busing, they want to force integration because they know that they can be the supreme rulers. You notice that when they pass these laws, they send you kids to all white schools or have them tutored. This is the reason that they want to, they've gotten from the Central Bank under Roosevelt and they're destroying not only the white man, but the black man and they're right now, the black man has it good but as soon as they get mixed then they're going to be the slaves owned by Jews.

Moderator:

Okay, go ahead, you're on the air in contact with KKK.

Caller:

Okay, I would like to ask why, how can that man say that thing the black men are cultured and (inaudible). They gave him what they had here but didn't have very much for the black man?

West:

Would you go back to Africa?

Caller:

Yeah.

Reusch:

There have been three movements in this country for the return of the black man to his country. It was under Lincoln and it happened in the 20's and also there is a movement today. I read about four years ago, a man in Chicago, that is trying to raise up enough money to return to his home land, which is his continent. He has one of the richest continents in the world. The (inaudible) the most prominent resources, it has a lot of resources as a matter of fact, every resources there are, right today they are being mined by white engineers from different countries in the European and Asiatic countries which I feel now that maybe that there could be something done that this white individual could (inaudible) in that government to establish maybe some other form of government under the black people. If this ^{AGREEMENT} ~~agreement~~ could happen, well maybe the blacks would want to return back to Africa (inaudible), then give the United States to the white man. But there's going to have to be something set down for an understanding of what each individual believes in. If this is not done in a matter of a few years, I see a lot of disorder and perhaps a Civil War.

Caller:

How can you feel this that you've give us a culture when you haven't done anything? I mean, (inaudible).

Reusch: Not necessarily, if you lived in Africa then, maybe 50 years ago, most Africans at that time lived in mud huts, etc.

Caller:

You said you gave us medicine and stuff. (Inaudible) before white people (inaudible).

Reusch:

(Inaudible.)

Caller:

The black man created (inaudible) and he died because white people didn't accept him in the white hospital.

Reusch:

Now, I'll answer your question. You probably understand earlier, where our medicine come from, I'll agree with you on that point. Now, about the blood and different things like this. Now our medicine association in this country advocates mixing of the blood. You have heard of sickle cell anemia. I preached on sickle cell anemia five years ago, now you have today a foundation for them to raise money to help people, to cure people, to cure sickle cell anemia.

Caller:

(Inaudible?)

Reusch:

Not necessarily, this can be very fatal to a white individual. Now, maybe the blood type are perhaps the same I'm no medical professional. I'll tell you this much and it's true, physicians say that this sickle cell is as prominent and (inaudible) in the blood stream of a Negro, then it gets injected into the white stream on an operating table and this can be very fatal to that individual it's happening to.

Caller:

Thank you.

Moderator:

The number to call is 263-2662 we'll put you in contact with the KKK and please turn down your TV set. You're on the air, go ahead.

Caller:

Okay. I like to ask this question to the Grand Dragon. Alright in Dayton, (inaudible), if a (inaudible) person is married to an (inaudible) girl, would he be allowed in or would she be allowed in too?

Reusch:

No, they would not. The Mexican is not considered in the Caucasian group.

Caller:

Okay. (Inaudible?)

Reusch:

If he has replenished the earth with a child and he has crossed his seed with another race, uh, we could not accept him.

Caller:

Alright, this if for another guy. How would I (inaudible) get into the KKK?

Reusch:

You would contact me in Lodi. Post Office Box 248, Lodi, Ohio, that's our national office in the State. I receive all my business and (inaudible) and mail through that box number.

Caller:

How about dues?

Reusch:

Dues? Dues are usually $2 a month.

Caller:

How much?

Reusch:

$2 a month.

Caller:

Uh huh, and this is for everybody?

Reusch:

Everybody.

Caller:

Okay, thank you very much.

Reusch:

Thank you.

Moderator:

Number to call is 263-2662 and you'll be in contact with Mr. Reusch, the Grand Dragon of the KKK from Lodi, Ohio, also Dave Matson, a senior at Akron, Ohio High School, and Tina West, who is a housewife in the KKK. You're on the air go ahead.

Caller:

(Inaudible?)

Reusch:

Uh, Christ said, I believe in St. Luke, 19th Chapter, 27th Verse, "They who are my enemies, I shall not reign over them bring them ~~under~~ ^{ALTOGETHER} and slay them before me". Now the "Bible" was written in the Old and New Testament, and testament means testimonial. Now, the "Bible", itself, was written for Christians to kill among Christians. It did not talk about killing non-Christians, because you go back into St. Luke, 19th Chapter, 27th Verse, and he says "protect yourself" and also he says, "It's stated in the "Bible", he said if your home is in jeopardy then you should buy yourself a sword and sell your coat to buy a sword. So it's all, all these scriptures in there, it's got to be brought out it's all been mixed up. And this is why I say since man has got into the "Bible" it has confused this "Bible" so to extreme that most preachers today (inaudible) society and should (inaudible). I think the law of Christian teachers have been removed over the period of hundreds of years, we've got away from Christianity. I think the last good Christian (inaudible) you had in the world, was the Christian Crusades in about 1050 against Genghis ~~Genghis~~ ^{GENGHIS} KHAN ~~Kahn~~ (phonetic) (inaudible) then Christianity began to phase away and white man began to get his misinterpretation of the "Bible" and writings and kept reprinting the "Bible".

Moderator:

Okay. Actually you do the same thing though when you do classify what you believe when you're getting it out of the "Bible", what to say to.

Reusch:

Well you have to look up the meaning of the word, what the word really (inaudible), "Bible", and those little marks above those letters mean (inaudible). And (inaudible) because a lot of translations were briefed and debriefed it completely (inaudible). So this is where the English language ~~loses~~ a lot of true definition of a word. So we got to realize we got to go back into the Latin and the Greek letters and also Hebrew writers.

Moderator:

You're on the air go ahead.

Caller:

You think (inaudible)?

Reusch:

Not as a whole. Voluntarily as you wanted to go back into some arrangement you made that you could go back as you wanted to go back. Now, I'm not saying I'm going to send you back.

Caller:

You can't send me back, but do you think they should go back?

Reusch:

Do I think they should go back?

Caller:

Yes.

Reusch:

Well, I'll put it this way, I do believe in separation of the races. So then we will have to establish segregation laws in this country to separate the races.

Caller:

Well where do you think you're going?

Reusch:

It's hard to say. I just do not know at this point.

Caller:

Why don't you go back to where you came from?

Reusch:

You're correct. Who founded the country in the beginning?

Caller:

(Inaudible.)

Reusch:

Yes, he was.

Caller:

(Inaudible.)

Reusch:

Yes, and probably I may have to go back.

Caller:

Well, why don't you?

Reusch:

It just may be in the near future I may have to. I'll send you a telegram when I'm ready to leave.

Caller:

Do you want my house number?

Reusch:

I don't need it.

Caller:

Well how you going to send me a telegram?

Reusch:

Well I'll send it air mail.

West:

(Inaudible) cause people to write in when they find out about the (inaudible)? It's a very (inaudible), for all the white people. If the black people think that we're not here not only to save lives, because no body else will, they're all going to be slaves in the end and this treaty...it has just been passed out of the Senate again by the conservatives. The liberals are (inaudible) it and the conservatives are (inaudible) it. And what they want to do is have one world, one race, one religion etc. (inaudible) and it's (inaudible) to find out how they are going to do it.

Caller:

Yes, I would like to talk with the Grand Dragon please?

Moderator:

Okay.

Caller:

Uh, I am a black Christian and I want to know if you feel (inaudible)? You only act on race and (inaudible)? If you had no way of knowing (inaudible)?

Reusch:

First of all we're talking about blood transfusions. Now, it's up to the members of this order (inaudible), some type of blood that they've had within the white structure or the white race, it's, now you're blood type like I said before, probably would be the same, but there is different races of people that carry different diseases of the blood which could be fatal to another race. This is what I'm driving at. This could be very fatal if the transfusions supplied to a white or to anyother race and is certain diseases that have never been brought forth to the to the people themselves that this could be very fatal, (inaudible). Uh you're questioned again, if you move into a white area, now I would have to answer you this way. First of all what would prompt you to move into a white area? Myself, I want to live among my own kind. If you would move from an all black area to an all white area would you feel that you were out of place or would you feel that you were among you own kind at that time?

Moderator:

We appreciate you taking the time to be on our program uh, Mr. Reusch, Dave Matson and Tina West. I do want to say one thing that we've received quite a few telephone calls this week from various organizations and various people who felt that we shouldn't put these people on the air, but we hope that you don't feel every time we have somebody on this station (inaudible). At the same time, we are not on this particular program and others, not have individuals on, whom the majority may not agree with or who they may agree with. It depends on the subject. We can't ignore something because we may not agree with it and I certainly, personally don't agree with the KKK but that's my opinion, which doesn't mean I shouldn't put them on this TV program.

Ku Klux Klan Alive, Well In State, Ohioan Claims; Cincy-Area Rally Set

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Ku Klux Klan was condemned by President Lyndon B. Johnson in the mid-1960's and has had its rallies chased out of Ohio communities in recent years, but a spokesman says the organization thrives.

Dale Reusch of Lodi, O., who is organizing a Saturday rally in the suburban Cincinnati community of Loveland, says the KKK is gaining membership through new issues such as school busing.

Just how big is the KKK in Ohio?

"Membership, I can't reveal because it's secretive," said Mr. Reusch, whose plans for Loveland include the cross burnings which have been a KKK trademark since its origin in the 1800's.

The purpose of the meeting is to raise membership. Mr. Reusch has four Klan officials from out-of-state scheduled to speak.

He said he hopes the rally will draw a "very large crowd" on a 57-acre private park.

James R. Venable, imperial wizard of the Klan from Atlanta, Ga., heads the speaking list. Others are grand dragons Robert Scoggin of South Carolina, Gary Green of New Jersey, and Tony LaRicci of Maryland.

Mr. Reusch indicated that subjects will include bussing, law and order, world and national government and interpretations of the Bible.

He said the meeting will begin at 6 p.m. with a propane gas torch burning throughout the meeting. He said the 9:30 p.m. climax of the meeting will include the ritualistic burning of three more crosses.

Serving as backdrop for the meeting will be a 4-foot-8 painting of a Klansman on a horse.

Mr. Reusch, a worker at a Cleveland automobile plant, claimed there are 87 locations in the state where meetings occur regularly.

'Trouble Renting Meeting Halls'

Reusch Says KKK Recruiting Aims At Discontent In Cities

CINCINNATI (AP) — Dale Reusch, King Kleagle or chief Ku Klux Klan organizer in Ohio, said that the KKK has been modernized and recruitment is being aimed at the cities "because that's where we're getting a lot of response."

Reusch, 33, of Lodi, will head an organizing rally tonight on a farm in Loveland Park, an unincorporated area of Warren County just north of Loveland.

"There won't be any trouble," said Reusch, in a telephone interview. "We'll just be there to talk to people and explain the Klan."

"IT'S TOUGH to contact the individual," he said noting that the meeting will be held in an open field. "I have a lot of trouble renting meeting halls. The owners are afraid."

Reusch said the KKK's reputation of the past was southern oriented and "a lot of people are scared to death of it."

"Sure, we're still a segregationist group but there is a lot more to it, too. We want a chance to educate the public to what it really consists of and the part it's played in American government when you hear anything about the Klan it's bad; you never hear about the good things."

REUSCH SAID the KKK is concerned with the rights of individual property owners opposing "all these new laws" that appropriate property. He said they were for decentralized government and preservation of state and congressional boundaries.

Reusch said city dwellers have been moving toward the Klan since the advent of "busing, disorders and corruption in government at all levels."

"We want to reach the average individual ... the one who's disgusted."

REUSCH SAID the meeting will get underway around 6 p. m. and three or more crosses will be ignited around 9 p. m.

The Warren County Sheriff's office, meanwhile, has announced that all personnel from the county and other area police agencies will be placed on alert Saturday night.

Klan Group's Rally in Ohio Draws Crowd of True Believers, Curious

By Robert J. Caldwell
Staff Writer

LOVELAND, O. — Maureen O'Connell, 23, of Chicago was there as part of her travels "in search of America."

Edgar J. Cronk, 60, of Cincinnati had covered the 20 miles from his home by bicycle and was there as a "true believer."

What brought them and about 200 others to the banks of the Little Miami River here in Warren County Saturday night was an open-air, cross-burning meeting of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

And if it was true that not too many bona fide National Knights managed to show up, Klan sympathizers, the curious and half a platoon of newsmen made up for the shortage.

THE KLAN IS NOT new to Warren County, or to southwest Ohio for that matter. During the 1920s and early '30s, in the days of the great Klan revival, hooded Klansmen gathered to denounce blacks, immigrants, Jews, Roman Catholics and Bolshevism.

Flexing their often considerable political muscle, they voted county sheriffs in and out of office. In 1928, Klansmen will tell you, they cast 12 million votes against the Democratic presidential candidate, Alfred E. Smith, a Roman Catholic.

Although membership in the various Klan organizations nationwide and in Ohio is a tightly held secret, it would appear to be small. Indeed, if Saturday evening's rally here is any indication.

Counting dignitaries, there were six admitted robed Klansmen present.

As the rally got under way with the lighting of a small metal propane-gas fueled cross, South Carolina's Grand Dragon (equivalent to state chairman), Robert E. Scoggins, 49, of Spartanburg, launched into his speech about a "nation controlled by the minority and financially by the majority."

Although something of a spellbinder in the true tradition of southern oratory, Scoggins' one-hour speech had to compete with a scattering of private discussions going on throughout the festive audience.

One middle-aged southern transplant, who curiously refused to identify himself, nevertheless eagerly told reporters about his just completed book entitled, "Rolling On Through the Ku Klux Klan."

"I tell about the Jew and Commie conspiracy to take over the country," Mr. X told those who would listen. In addition to unhappiness over these conspiracies, Mr. X was incensed over "Tricky Dick" Nixon's recent return of Okinawa to Japan.

"I fought on that island, and here Tricky Dick goes and gives it back to the Japs. Now don't that beat all," the man said.

ALSO PRESENT WAS A local celebrity of sorts, one Parkie Scott. Scott, a middle-aged Warren County farmer, stood on the fringe of the crowd, holding his walkie-talkie radio and maintaining a generally low profile.

Scott still is appealing his mid-1960s conviction for "obstructing a peace officer." The alleged violation occurred in connection with a Klan meeting on his farm.

Would Scott consent to an interview?

"Only if you can put me on live television," Scott said.

Meanwhile, Dragon Scoggins filled in the audience on his nine-month federal jail sentence on a contempt of Congress charge because of his refusal to disclose to a congressional committee the names of other Klansmen.

"THE CONGRESS DOESN'T require the Communist party and the Black Muslims to disclose their members, but they sent me to jail for nine months . . . and I'd go again to protect your right of association, assembly and speech," declared Scoggins.

In general, Scoggins, a 19-year Klan veteran, assured the audience that "176 million white Christian Americans can out-organize, outvote, and outfinance the 34 million who are trying to take over the country."

Mild applause indicated that the audience perhaps agreed.

The next Grand Dragon to speak was Jerry Greene of Bridgeton, N.J. Greene's message: "There is nothing illegal about the Klan."

Greene denied the Klan was guilty of violence against minorities. After his speech, he told the curious counter-culture Miss O'Connell that "violence blamed on the Klan was often done by Klan enemies dressed in sheets and out to discredit our organization."

Miss O'Connell nodded but hardly seemed convinced.

FINALLY, JUNIOR Klanner David Matson, 17, of Akron, told the audience of harassment in his Akron high school because he "resisted ideas of racial equality."

The featured speaker, the Imperial Wizard of the National Knights, lawyer James R. Venable of Tucker, Ga., never arrived. Reportedly, he was delayed by heavy traffic.

Ohio's own King Kleagle (state organizer, Dale R. Reusch of Lodi apologized to the crowd for Venable's absence and then filled in with a speech of his own.

Van Loman of Cincinnati, an organizer for the rival United Klans of America, was on hand to "observe" the National Knights in action.

Asked if there was friction between the two Klan groups, Loman said: "We get along fine. We're not prejudiced, you know."

The real news event of the evening was the endorsement by Scoggins, Greene and Reusch of the American party ticket of U.S. Rep. John G. Schmitz, R-Calif., for president, and Tennessee publisher Thomas J. Anderson for vice president.

The climax was the burning of an 8-foot burlap-wrapped wooden cross.

While a tape recorder played church organ music over the loudspeaker system, the flimsy cross collapsed soon after it was torched.

"The cross," said Reusch, "wasn't supposed to break."

Dale Reusch, 33, of Lodi, King Kleagle, organizer of the Ohio Klan, and Grand Dragons Jerry Greene of New Jersey and Robert E. Soggin of South Carolina, all announced endorsements before a recruiting meeting held at Loveland Park in Warren County north of Cincinnati.

Reusch indicated he expects to be named Grand Dragon of Ohio at the Klan's national meeting at Stone Mountain, Ga., near Atlanta, Sept. 2.

Reusch also said he intends to seek the Democratic nomination for Congress from the 17th Congressional District next year. He was an unsuccessful candidate for sheriff in the Medina County Democratic primary this year.

Klan Claims Ohio Gains Tops in U.S.

LEBANON (P) — Swelled by young members, the Ku Klux Klan in Ohio is growing faster than the organization in any other state, Ohio KKK Grand Dragon Dale Reusch says.

"The state of Ohio is leading in the membership drive," said Reusch, an automotive factory worker from Lodi. "It also has the biggest potential for taking in more new members."

A major KKK rally will be held next Saturday and Sunday in nearby Loveland.

Reusch said he was attempting to arrange rallies in Dayton and Cleveland in October.

ALTHOUGH membership is secret, Reusch said more than 200 between 15 and 21 joined the organization after a rally in an old park in Loveland last month.

"What we are trying to do is recruit younger members since they towered the voting age," Reusch explained. "Youth has a voice in American politics."

He said the KKK in Ohio has a lot more members now than it did five years ago when the organization was more active, especially in the southwestern Ohio area.

Reusch said one of the main objectives of the rallies at this point of the year is to get members to vote and encourage others to cast ballots for the American Independent party presidential candidate, U.S. Rep. John Schmitz of California.

He added that working class people are turning conservative rather than liberal. Working class people are not for George McGovern, although labor generally tends to support Democratic candidates, he said.

REUSCH SAID the presidential race will be a prime topic at the Loveland rally. He said grand dragons of the KKK in South Carolina, New Jersey and Maryland will speak, as will William Chaney, Indiana grand dragon of the United Klans of America.

James Venable, imperial wizard of the KKK, also is scheduled to attend.

KKK Seeks Status As 'Political Force'

CLEVELAND (AP) — James Venable, Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan has told Ohio recruiters to work to overcome the Klan's "historic violent identity."

Venable, in a brief address to a Klan recruiting rally at Loveland Park 20 miles north east of Cincinnati Sunday night, said that the new aim of the Klan is to "become a political force to be contended with."

He cautioned, however, that the Klan still maintains its traditional stands including its positions against integration and Communism.

VENABLE called for support of American Independent Party Presidential Nominee

John Schmitz, a lameduck Republican California congressman.

Venable, an Atlanta, Ga., attorney, accused the American Bar Association of bending the nation's laws and said the result was "ruining the nation."

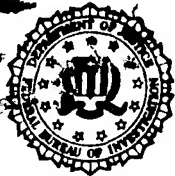

He said Schmitz embodied the Klan's philosophy of "Constitutional rights."

LESS THAN 50 turned out for the closing of the two-day rally here, and less than 100 the day before.

But Ohio Grand Dragon Dale Reusch, of Lodi, said recruiting had been steady. He declined to say how many persons had joined or what the Ohio membership totaled. But he said it is growing.

Notations

Two copies of this report furnished for Cleveland due to activities of NKKKK members from their division who periodically conduct activities in the Cincinnati Division. U

Subjects mentioned in this report who are within the Cincinnati Division are subjects of current investigation. U

It should be noted that the NKKKK had previously been an active organization in the Cincinnati Division, but as of 1970 all known activities have ceased. During 1972, [redacted] Lodi, Ohio began a recruitment program and initiated public rallies in Loveland Park, Ohio within the Cincinnati Division in August and September of 1972. Information developed through informants in the Cincinnati Division has indicated that except for the rallies, no other pertinent activities have taken place. U

[redacted] has been characterized by Cincinnati informants as highly inflating membership figures for publicity purposes. It appears that the NKKKK in the Cincinnati Division is a loosely knit group having no organized activity at this time. The individuals that have been recruited into membership are directly responsible to [redacted] and all activities most likely will be determined by [redacted]

NKKKK, Realm of Ohio, has held two public rallies in August and September of 1972 at Loveland Park, Ohio. The NKKKK is under the leadership of [redacted] Lodi, Ohio. Other than public rallies, no other noted activities have taken place within the Cincinnati Division. Best estimate of NKKKK membership within the Cincinnati Division is 20 - 30 individuals. U

- P -

DETAILS:NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX
KLAN OF OHIO, INC., (NKKKK)

On October 8, 1964, [redacted] Clerk, Secretary of State's Office, Columbus, State of Ohio, advised public records from this office indicate a charter was granted the NKKKK of Ohio on October 5, 1964, by the State of Ohio. The charter was filed under Certificate Number 10194, and the Corporation Number is 334111. U

The purpose of the corporation is to operate as a realm organization within the State of Ohio and in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia. Second, to promote patriotism toward the civil government, honorable peace among men and nations, love among ourselves, liberty, justice and patriotic association for the mutual benefit of all mankind. U

On October 23, 1964, [redacted] Corporation Counsel, State House, Secretary of State's Office, State of Ohio advised that the NKKKK of Ohio, Inc.'s charter granted October 5, 1964, was revoked October 22, 1964, for the official reason that the NKKKK organization was on the U.S. Attorney General's subversive list [redacted] said the actual purpose for revocation of the charter was not because the NKKKK is on the U.S. Attorney General's subversive list, but because it was felt the existence of a state granted charter would encourage the Klan to make the claim it was "state sanctioned" and, therefore, entirely legitimate. U

In actuality, the Ku Klux Klan and not the NKKKK has been designated by the U.S. Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450. U

On May 6, 1969, a confidential source of the Cincinnati FBI Office advised that the above Klan organization is practically non-existent in the Southern area of Ohio. This source pointed out that [redacted] still holds his title as [redacted] [redacted] however, this title currently is in name only since [redacted] has almost completely discontinued his association with the NKKKK. Synopsis: National Headquarters of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK), now located at Stone Mountain, Ga. Officers, membership, and activities in Georgia set forth. Activities of Klaverns in Ohio and New York set forth. Unity Conference held at Stone Mountain on 3/24-25/73.

DETAILS:

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., (NKKKK), was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern states, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

I. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTUREA. Headquarters

Headquarters for the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) is now located in a recently completed building, located on the property of Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, 900, VFW Drive, Stone Mountain, Georgia. The old headquarters, located at 4107 Lawrenceville Highway, Tucker, Georgia, was sold by the owners, and will be torn down to make way for a filling station.

[redacted] 3/28/73)

B. Charter Information

At a meeting of the NKKKK held in Tucker, Georgia, on September 6, 1964, Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, announced that he had incorporated the NKKKK, and that it was being operated as a separate Klan, the same as the other Klans having membership in the national group.

[REDACTED] 9/16/64)

The NKKKK was granted a charter in DeKalb County, Georgia, on November 1, 1963, under the name of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.

There has been no change in the charter status of the NKKKK.

[REDACTED] 2/19/71)

C. Objectives

The NKKKK was chartered as a patriotic, secret, social, and benevolent order. In December, 1963, the NKKKK issued a statement of its program, which indicated the organization to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

[REDACTED] 12/63)

The objectives of the NKKKK have not changed since the organization was formed. Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, however, does not advocate any form of violence in the settlement of racial issues.

[REDACTED] 2/19/71)

D. National Officers

The NKKKK has only one active national officer, Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, an Atlanta attorney. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] might still be considered the head of the [REDACTED] of the NKKKK, but there is no [REDACTED] have made her inactive as far as Klan matters are concerned.

[REDACTED] 3/28/73)

E. National Organization Activities

The only real national organization activity of the NKKKK is the annual rally and cross burning held on Labor Day weekend each year on the property of JAMES R. VENABLE in Stone Mountain, Georgia. The only other activity which could be considered national organization character are the travels of JAMES R. VENABLE around the country to make speeches on behalf of the NKKKK.

[redacted] 3/28/73)

The affiliation of Klan organizations with the NKKKK has little significance because on the basis of past experience the affiliated Klans have been essentially independent organizations. Imperial Wizard is always losing money on his personal Klan activities. VENABLE, as the only active officer of the NKKKK, does not issue any publications and very little literature; he therefore, has little influence on any Klan organization which ostensibly affiliates with the NKKKK.

[redacted] 2/14/72)

F. Publications and Propaganda

Klavern 102, Pine Bush, New York, has been designated as material print headquarters for the NKKKK by NKKKK Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE.

Printing of publications or other Klan material is to be done at New York State [redacted] residence, where an A. B. Dick off-set printing press and an old 1847 Kick printing press are located.

[redacted] 1/16/73)

G. Cross Burnings and Rallies in Georgia

On June 4, 1972, a motorcade, sponsored by the NKKKK, took place in North Georgia. Approximately 40 cars participated in the demonstration, and went through the towns of Elberton, Georgia; Royston, Georgia; Carnesville, Georgia; Toccoa, Georgia; Lavonia, Georgia; and Anderson, South Carolina. The motorcade was led by Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, [redacted] of the Hart County Klavern. The motorcade covered approximately 175 miles, and there were no speeches before or after this demonstration. The stated purpose of this motorcade was to:

- (1) Put GOD first in America and back in the schools.
- (2) No busing - freedom of choice.
- (3) Victory in Viet Nam.
- (4) Restoration of capital punishment.

[REDACTED] 6/5/72)

A rally and cross burning, sponsored by the Upson County Klavern of the NKKKK, was held on the Saturday evening of June 24, 1972, at Zebulon, Georgia. Three speakers spoke at the rally,

An unidentified woman speaker gave a speech against school busing.

[REDACTED] a member of the Upson County Klavern, gave a speech denouncing the Federal Government's attempts to force integration.

[REDACTED] of Georgia, gave a speech endorsing a local sheriff up for re-election.

An 8 to 10 foot cross was burned, and approximately 20 robed Klansmen circled it as it burned.

[REDACTED] 6/27/72)

The annual rally and cross burning, sponsored by the NKKKK, took place on Saturday evening, September 2, 1972, on the property of Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE, located at the foot of Stone Mountain, Stone Mountain, Georgia.

Approximately 300 people attended the rally with approximately 100 wearing Klan robes.

VENABLE gave the principal speech in which he called for separation of the races. He also warned those assembled of what he called a "World Court", that if not stopped, would one day control everyone's life.

AT 157-60

VENABLE also stated that the Klan was continuing to grow in membership, and now is seeking to enroll young people.

The following people also gave speeches at the rally:

- (1) [redacted] of the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (UKA) of Alabama.
- (2) [redacted] of the UKA, South Carolina.
- (3) [redacted] of the UKA, Indiana.
- (4) [redacted] head of [redacted] of the NKKKK.

All extolled the merits of the Klan and being a Klan member, and also called for separation of the races.

[redacted] 9/3/72)

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.

The United Klans of America, Inc., was chartered in 1961 in Georgia. Its aims and purposes are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races. It is the dominant Klan group in the South with headquarters at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and is currently active in several states.

A 25 foot cross was burned while 100 robed Klansmen circled it. The rally ended at 11:00 p.m.

[redacted] 9/3/72)

On September 23, 1972, a rally and cross burning, sponsored by the Hartwell County Klavern of the NKKKK was held outside of Hartwell, Georgia. The rally was attended by approximately 100 people, 35 of whom wore Klan robes. Principal speakers at the rally were [redacted] NKKKK Georgia [redacted] [redacted] of the Hartwell County Klavern.

One large cross and two small crosses were burned during the rally.

[redacted] 9/25/72)

H. Klaverns

During the past year, the Upson County Klavern, Thomaston, Georgia, stopped holding weekly meetings.

[REDACTED] 3/28/73)

Weekly meetings of NKKKK members are held on the property of JAMES R. VENABLE, located at Stone Mountain, Georgia. Usually, between 8 and 15 Klansmen, male and female, meet on Sunday morning at VENABLE's for brunch, and a speech by VENABLE. Most of these people are older Klansmen, and are more interested in the history of the Klan rather than anything else.

[REDACTED] 3/28/73)

The Hart County Klavern, located in Hartwell, Georgia, is the only other Klavern in the State of Georgia, that had any significant activities during the last year. This unit, which meets sporadically, and has less than 15 members, sponsored several rallies in 1972. There is [REDACTED] principal officer of this group, [REDACTED] who was responsible for keeping this Klavern going.

[REDACTED] 3/28/73)

I. Klan Unity Meeting Held by JAMES R. VENABLE

On the weekend of March 24-25, 1973, approximately 30 persons, most of whom were Klan leaders from various states throughout the United States, gathered at the estate of JAMES R. VENABLE in Stone Mountain, Georgia. The stated purpose of this conference was to bring the members of the various and diverse Klan groups throughout the United States in to one Klan group. The principal result of this two-day meeting was the election of a "pilot committee", which will meet quarterly and serve for one year. The purpose of the pilot committee is to promote unity between Klan organizations and other conservative groups. Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE is on the pilot committee.

Castration was threatend to anyone quitting the Klan.

On March 26, 1973, a confidential source, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised that on the weekend of March 24-25, 1973, approximately 30 persons gathered at the estate of James Venable, national leader of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK).

The NKKKK was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social, benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in Southern states, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic, and anti-foreign born.

A business session was conducted on the morning of March 24, 1973, and the principle result of this meeting was the election of a Pilot Committee, which will meet quarterly and serve for one year. The purpose of this Pilot Committee is to promote unity between Klan organizations and other conservative groups. Mr. Venable is on the committee, as is a grand dragon from the rival United Klans of America, Inc. (UKA).

The UKA was chartered in 1961 in Georgia. Its aims and purposes are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races. It is the dominant Klan group in the South with headquarters at Tuscaloosa, Alabama, and is currently active in several states.

Discussions were held in the afternoon at the Venable estate and the main theme of the meeting was unity for conservative minded organizations. Plans were also disclosed for building of a school in a nearby pasture.

[redacted]
[redacted] was a principle proponent of this venture and [redacted]
[redacted] noted that a confederate "Valley Forge" type memorial would be part of this school.

James Venable also delivered a lengthy discourse on the unification of the white Christian crusade in America.

The conference resumed on Sunday morning, March 25, 1973, at the Venable Estate at approximately 9:30 AM. Mr. Venable served all of those attending a large breakfast at his home and following the breakfast, Mr. Venable spoke again of unification of Klan organizations and pointed to the necessity for this unification in view of the threats to white-Christian Americans.

Mr. Venable then introduced [redacted]
[redacted] of the UKA, and [redacted] also addressed his remarks in favor of some form of unification.

[redacted] was followed by [redacted]
[redacted] of the UKA, Realm of Indiana. [redacted] also spoke in favor of unification and was very complimentary of James Venable. [redacted] who had spoken the evening before, largely repeated his remarks and summarized the need for unification of white America.

Re: National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan
Atlanta, Georgia

The UKA, Realm of Indiana, is subordinate to the parent organization UKA, Inc., Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The UKA is not chartered in Indiana and is led by [redacted]

[redacted] Its objectives are the promotion of Americanism, segregation of the races and white supremacy.

[redacted] was followed by [redacted] Birmingham, Alabama. [redacted] spoke on Klan craft and the importance of symbolism in the Klan.

Other speakers of the morning were [redacted] of the NKKKK, State of Georgia, and [redacted] remarks were principally anti-Catholic. [redacted] of Jacksonville, Florida, [redacted] from Florida, and an individual from Selma, Alabama, were all recognized by Mr. Venable and made brief comments.

Just before lunch, [redacted] who is known to his friends as [redacted] spoke on the need for unity and togetherness. [redacted] the NKKKK [redacted] for the State of New Jersey, however, took issue with other speakers, who had urged a political approach to unification of Klan groups. [redacted] favored more harsh measures justifying these means as necessary to combat the practices of radical left and black militant elements in society.

A lunch was served to the conferees by Mr. Venable and following lunch the group listened to an address by [redacted] who was accompanied [redacted] introduced her to the group as the "tobacco queen of 1967." Those in attendance who knew [redacted] described him as a teacher, fundamentalist [redacted] and member of the John Birch Society.

Other previous speakers again summarized their remarks and Mr. Venable concluded the meeting with a one and a half hour speech concerning the white Christian crusade in American and the need for unification for all persons involved in the crusade under one banner.

The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. (NKKKK) was granted a charter in Georgia in 1963 as a "patriotic, secret, social and benevolent order." The NKKKK, a consolidation of various Klans in southern states, continues to be anti-Negro, anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic and anti-Foreign Born.

[] confidential source advised that at approximately 4:00 PM, on May 19, 1973, a number of individuals were at the rally site making preparations for the evening activities.

James Venable, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, who came to the rally from his Headquarters located in the State of Georgia. This source advised that the rally was a rather dull affair and elicited very little applause. The speakers were vague, referred to various sections of the Bible, but were confused and unconvincing.

[redacted] confidential source had occasion to speak with James Venable. Venable related to the source that he is "getting tired of it all". Venable said the South is lost but indicated he was impressed by some of the young people with their fresh, dynamic approach. This source advised that approximately sixty persons excluding young children, were in attendance at the beginning of the rally, but this figure varied during the speeches because some of the attendees left the area and many local residents came in and out to hear some of the speeches. [redacted] confidential source, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised on May 20, 1973, that he attended the above mentioned rally on May 19, 1973. [redacted]

[redacted] In addition, the [redacted] source was advised by [redacted] earlier on May 19, 1973, that an initiation of new Klan members would be held after the rally. Because of the inclement weather and the lateness of the rally, [redacted] cancelled the initiation ceremonies.

[redacted] source also advised that the Klan Minister who was the initial speaker was introduced to him earlier in the evening as [redacted] from Northern Ohio. This source advised that during his speech, [redacted] wearing a pink robe, referred to the Bible utilizing specific passages against Negroes, homosexuals and lesbians. The second speaker, [redacted] wearing a white robe, appealed for the youth to ban together to help the Klan gain strength. The unnamed third speaker, wearing a white robe, gave a short speech downgrading the Negro race. This speaker utilized the term "niggers" in reference to the Negro race. [redacted] wearing a green robe, gave a long speech that was anti-U. S. Government. He spoke against the Congress of the U. S., the present Administration, and the busing problem. [redacted] also related that the Negroes are united and the white people must unite for the preservation of the white race. James Venable, wearing a gold robe and green peaked hat, spoke about the early existence of the Klan and tried to impress upon the people the strength of the Klan in years past. Venable also condemned the present political scene and made several anti-Negro statements.
